

The Barons won their home opener, defeating the Mississippi Braves 9-5 in front of a sell-out crowd at Regions Field last night. This scoreboard, located down the first base line, tells part of the story (and is one of two nods to Rickwood Field picked up by die hard baseball fans visiting the park last night); the Barons website tells the rest. Among the highlights was the go-ahead, tie-breaking two-run home run by Marcus Semien.

Yeah, it was ready for its close-up.
