

We've just gotten word that Highland Brewing Company will be bringing their Fall seasonal brew exclusively to the first annual Free the Hops Oktoberfest being held Saturday, September 19th in downtown Birmingham on historic Morris Avenue between 21st and 22nd Streets North.

The festival will feature German cuisine provided by The J Clyde, live music from Die Mitternaechters, and more than 25 German and German-style American-made beers. This will be a great opportunity to sample some exclusive and rare beers that will only be available in the state of Alabama during the festival.

Advanced tickets and more information can be found on the Free The Hops website.
